The Subcontractor named above, in entering into an agreement to sell defense articles, defense services, or design and construction services, hereby acknowledges that the sum to be claimed as due and owing under the Purchase Order or Invoice identified above (hereafter sometimes referred to as the "Purchase Agreement") is to be paid, in whole or in part, to the Contractor from U.S. Government (USG) funds made available to the foreign government under the provisions of the Arms Export Control Act, as amended. In consideration of the receipt of such sum, the Subcontractor certifies to and agrees with the U.S. Government, as represented by the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), the following:

1. Agrees to permit an authorized representative of the Government of the United States access to and the right to examine, for a period of three years following the final payment to the Contractor, any of the Subcontractor's directly pertinent books, documents, papers, or other records involving transactions related to the subcontract.

2. Multi-year contracts must also meet this flow-down requirement. This includes cumulative contract amounts with all aggregate orders, modifications, and amendments under the Purchase Agreement.

3. Acceptance and implementation of the subcontract constitutes a declaration and agreement by the principal executive officers of the subcontractor that no bribes, rebates, gifts, kickbacks, or gratuities to secure the purchase agreement or the subcontract, or for favorable treatment under such agreements or for any other purpose relating to the purchase agreement or the subcontract have been or will be directly or indirectly offered or given to, or have been or will be arranged with officers, or employees of the purchaser by the subcontractor, its employees, or agents.
